

Govven / Photo: Per Heimly

Lásse Piera Siivvar Hartvig Ingá, Ingá Elisa Påve Idivuoma

Sám:

Lásse Piera Siivvar Hartvig Ingá dahje Ingá Elisa Påve Idivuoma lea eret Porsáנגguvuonas Norgga beale Sámis, muhto orru Ruoŋa beale Sámi Gárasavvonis.

Son lea mánga jagi bargan Sámi allaskuvllas allaskuvlalektorin duojs, hábmemis ja dáidagis. Ingá lea maidái bargan Dáiddadálus moadde jagi go válddii bottu akademalaš barggus. Lassin son lea bargan iešguđet duodje- ja dáiddaprošeavttas ja ovddida maidái duoji ja dáidaga searvedoaimmaid bokte. Inggás lea mastergráda duojs ja lea erenoamážit čieknudan mearrasámi bivttasárbevieruide Porsáנגgu guovllus.

Eng:

Lásse Piera Siivvar Hartvig Ingá, also known as Ingá Elisa Påve Idivuoma, originates from Porsáנגguvuotna in the Norwegian part of Sápmi, and currently resides permanently in Gárasavvon on the Swedish side of Sápmi.

She has served for several years as a scholar and assistant professor in duodji, design, and arts at the Sámi University of Applied Sciences in Guovdageaidnu. She worked for a period with the Sámi artist Network Dáiddadállu, contributing to various artistic initiatives and projects. Ingá has been involved in a range of projects and has held multiple roles within the fields of duodji and art. She holds a master's degree in duodji, with a specialization in Sea Sámi clothing traditions from the Porsanger Sea Sámi region.