5. Teaching language
The use of the Sámi language is emphasized and employed from the beginning.
6. Contents

An environment of communication is organized for practical situations. The students are expected to communicate in Sámi language among themselves and to the teachers whenever working. Central learning themes are connected to Sámi traditions, life sustaining issues and other areas. The introductory headlines for the themes are:

The local environment
- the community and buildings
- climatic clothings
- socializing and service situations

Life sustaining issues
- time concepts (hours, days and nights, months, seasons)
- weather, travelling and navigation
- natural ressources
- sámi traditional life sustaining models

Basic societal encounters
- art, traditional handicraft, literature, religion and yoiking
- sámi linguistic working and cultural institutions
- media and other means of communication

The oral communication taking place in practical situations in various environments will form basic sentences encouraging practice of the part of speech inflect patterns and consonantal gradations touching upon the most common derivations.

7. Learning outcome

After completing this course, the student shall be able to exhibit the following:
- masters basic conversations in an everyday life situation;
- masters a short conversations about what one or others are doing, did do and have been doing, and what one wants to do, can do and is able to do.

- appreciates the opportunities to participate in the language protection work along with Sámi speakers in various communication situations.

8. Learning methods

It is mandatory for the student to attend at least 80 % of the teachings in each organized study week. The first two days of the course are mandatory.

The conditions for a successful learning and achievements are active participation in oral practices, group assignments and instructions.

The subject teacher organizes learning situations in order to provide a safe language practice environment.
Fellow students along with encouraging environment as well as teaching resourced concretized tools will function as a support to the language execution.

Sámi lingual and in particular traditional skilled individuals who are invited as guest lecturers for specific themes, will support the students to achieve communication competence.

The student will achieve individual learning through a work portfolio (for instance as papers, CDs, the digital workspace of the class). The student will document language production in connection with themes, like picture texts and dialogues.

In connection with the studies instructions will be offered. The basis of the instruction is the reflectional log of the student and the work portfolio.

In between the sessions the students will communicate in Sámi among themselves with the aid of modern communication tools.

9. Prerequisite for exams
- Do role playing (maximum of 3 students) and present it orally (app. 10 min.). The use of Sámi language during the work process will be emphasized. The role play can be based on an event, a story or a tale in a dialogue form.

- Short individual oral presentation (app. 5 minutes) on a theme of choice.

- Reflectional log where one’s linguistic progress is assessed (minimum 3 half page logs)

- Participation in a project work (maximum 3 students per group) with an oral presentation (app. 10 min.). The use of Sámi language during the work process will be emphasized. The project should be based on educational content and competence relevance.

- A text (1 page) that demonstrates one’s lingual competence and the ability to formulate simple sentences. The theme of the project work will facilitate this text production.

Before the exam the student will select some parts of the work portfolio for the exhibiting portfolio, including:
- 1 role play or individual oral presentation
- 1 reflectional log
- 1 work on a theme
- 1 text on the basis of the project work

The assignments should be submitted within an agreed deadline and be approved by the subject teacher.
