Aloha e Asta,

On behalf of the WINHEC Board of Affirmation/Accreditation and its P-12 Committee, we extend a deep mahalo (thanks) for your courageous and inspiring contributions as a review committee member on the 'Aha Pūnana Leo's ('APL) accreditation review. Recognizing the hard work, long hours, countless meetings, and multiple tasks that needed to be accomplished in such a short time, we applaud and are so grateful to you. Your input, both in terms of 'APL's review and WINHEC's new P-12 accreditation process, will help both organizations grow in powerful ways.

We hope that the week-long accreditation was fulfilling and worthwhile. We understand how taxing this process can be and hope that your mind, body and spirit have regained strength. Although we cannot remunerate you for this work, we hope that someday you would consider contributing your time and expertise to another WINHEC accreditation.

Again, it is with great honour and respect that we thank you for your contributions to the accreditation review of 'Aha Pūnana Leo. Attached is the final report that will be submitted to WINHEC's Accrediting Board in a couple of weeks. May your future path be filled with much love and success.

Me ka mahalo palena 'ole,
